Dogliani

Azienda Agricola Caraglio www.aacen.altervista.org

2017 Dogliani Dolcetto DOCG "Surimatin" $20.95

Dogliani is a region in Piedmont which falls into the Langhe but is renowned for its Dolcetto as shown by its DOCG. Dolcetto refers to the little sweet one. Known for lower tannins and bright fresh acidity. Surimatin is Piedmontese dialect referring to the vineyard's slope/exposure. It receives sun from first thing in the morning which results in a riper grape. Bunch thinning combined with a longer maceration period results in a richer red fruit profile that will taste great now but can also age.

2016 Langhe, Nebbiolo DOC $24.95

Nebbiolo is the grape grown in the regions of Barolo and Barbaresco. As Dogliani is not in the demarcated area for those DOCG's we see it labeled as Langhe. Dogliani is the historical home of Nebbiolo and in certain exposures can produce a great Nebbiolo. This is definitely the case with Caraglios vines.

2020 Langhe, Nascetta DOC $21.95

An overlooked native white grape from Piedmont in Italy. Known for pronounced floral aromas (acacia blossom) and fruit notes (apple, grapefruit, pineapple). Fresh, crisp, dry white with fruit and citrus flavours on the palate. A great Chablis alternative.
